

Lives to empower, powers to enliven: Bios at the edge of public reason

18 December 2017

Aula Magna, Dipartimento BioMeTra, Via Vanvitelli 32, Milano

Program

- 9.15: Welcome.
- 9.30–10.10: Giuseppe Testa, Professor of Molecular Biology, University of Milan and European Institute of Oncology.
Digitizing Life: The Mutual Constitution of Forms of Life and Politics.
- 10.10–10.50: Vincenzo Pavone, Senior Research Fellow, Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas.
Paradigms of value: The moral economy of egg donation and the Spanish quasi-market.
- 10.50–11.20: Coffe Break.
- 11.20–12.00: Luca Marelli, Research Fellow, European Institute of Oncology.
Governing Avatars: Scrutinizing the EU General Data Protection Regulation.
- 12.00–12.40: Simone Penasa, Assistant Professor, University of Trento.
Legislative Enhancement: Strategies for the Social and Scientific Empowerment of Political Decisions.
- 12.40–13.00: Discussion.
- 13.00–14.30: Lunch Break.
- 14.30–15.10: Federico G. Pizzetti, Professor of Public Law, University of Milan.
Human Dignity: Legal Personhood and Constitutional Rights in recent BioLaw.
- 15.10–16.00: Helga Nowotny, Professor Emerita, ETH Zürich, former President and Founding Member of the European Research Council (ERC).
Keynote speech: A humble view from inside evolution.
- 16.00–16.30: Discussion.

Organizing Committee: Prof. Giuseppe Testa, University of Milan, European Institute of Oncology; Prof. Maria Antonella Piga, University of Milan; Dr. Luca Marelli, European Institute of Oncology.