

The Future of the Istanbul Convention. What's Next after Turkey's Withdrawal?

June 28th 2021

2:00 - 6:00 PM

MS Teams

Institutional Greetings

Marilisa D'Amico, Deputy-rector in transparency, legality and equality of rights, University of Milan;
Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Milan

Lorenza Violini, President of the Equal Opportunities Committee (Comitato Unico di Garanzia, CUG);
Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Milan

Catherine E. De Vries, Dean for Diversity and Inclusion, Professor of Political Science, Bocconi University

Introductory Remarks

Marilisa D'Amico

I Session: Violence against Women in the Context of the Istanbul Convention

Marina Calloni, Professor of social and political philosophy, University of Milan-Bicocca

Yasmine Ergas, Director of the Specialization on Gender and Public Policy,
Senior Lecturer in Discipline in International and Public Affairs, Columbia University

Costanza Nardocci, Researcher in Constitutional Law, University of Milan

Irene Pellizzone, Professor of Constitutional Law, University of Milan

II Session: The Comparative Perspective: the Status of the Istanbul Convention in Eastern Europe

Tania Groppi, Professor of Public Law at the University of Siena

Valentina Rita Scotti, Lecturer in Gender-based discrimination and law, Koç University, Istanbul

Julia Wojnowska, Assistant Professor of Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law and Administration,
Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznan

Marianna Murayeva, Professor of Russian Law and Administration Faculty of Law, University of Helsinki

Aneta Ostaszewska, Centre for Women's and Gender Research, Institute of Social Prevention and Resocialisation, University of Warsaw

Pavla Špondrová, Lawyer, sociologist and Gender Expert Chamber Czech Republic

Conclusions

Ruth Rubio Marin, Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of Sevilla

To register, please write to: violenzadigenere@unimi.it